Grade K-3 A La Carte Course Descriptions:

Code	Course Descriptions	Course Description
TH1	Introduction to Theater I: Games, Stories, Songs, and Dances Teacher: Tess McKinley	Students will learn theater exercises for voice, body, and imagination and enact simple stagings using Frog and Toad stories and Aesop's Fables . They will engage imaginatively with dance and movement using musical rhythms and non-verbal storytelling through exploration of Prokofiev's Peter and the Wolf and oral expression using Aeneas' speech "Up and at it, shipmates!" We will also learn simple circle and folk dances.
TH2	Continuation of Introduction to Theater I: Games, Stories, Songs and Dances Teacher: Tess McKinley	Students will learn theater exercises for voice, body, and imagination and enact simple stagings using Grimm's Fairy Tales . They will engage imaginatively with dance and movement using musical rhythms and non-verbal storytelling through exploration of Saint-Saens' The Carnival of Animals and oral expression using "Call Up Your Courage" from the Aeneid . We will also learn simple circle and folk dances.
MU1	Singing Class, Music Play Teacher: Chris Hartford	Students will learn nursery rhymes and American Folk Songs through listening, singing, beat-keeping, movement, solfege (do, re, mi) and games. Students will study composers and listen to music ranging from Beethoven to Miles Davis.
MU2	Continuation of Singing Class, Music Play Teacher: Chris Hartford	Term II offers a continuation of Term I MU1. Additionally, students will focus on Christmas music, which will culminate in a candlelight caroling service.
